News: 7/4/1999 ID4 - Systems SOLD OUT.

Complete systems - SOLD OUT

Like the note says, I'm sold out of complete systems. If you mailed me on or before Friday July 2, you should be getting a system - provided the units all check out okay. If there are any bad units in the bunch, the systems will be sold on a first-come first-serve basis to people who have already mailed me.

I'd like to thank all my customers for their purchases - and I hope you enjoy your systems as much as I enjoy mine, which basically has The Incredible Wizard welded to it at the momen

Accessories / Replacement parts

Additional controller: $10. Excellent condition.

Cartridges (prices reduced): $5. All complete and in factory shrinkwrap. Minimum order, 6 cartridges. Free US shipping via priority mail on 6+ cartridge orders.

Replacement new power supply: $10. Tested with voltmeter before shipping. Excellent condition. Good for fixing up a Bally found "in the wild".

Replacement new RF unit (internal, not the TV/Game switchbox): $10. May help cure video problems on some Bally units found "in the wild".

Replacement dust cover: $10. These covers read "Bally Computer System". Excellent shape.

Shipping: Accessories and replacement parts are shipped via Priority Mail. Shipping costs will be determined at time of order.

Display kiosks - SOLD OUT, once I get shipping info for the buyers

Like the pictures of the Bally POS display on the other part of this site? Want one of your own? Can do!

These display units are made of heavy (old style ;)) particle board, acrylic, and metal. Consequently, they weigh a lot and can't be shipped by the likes of UPS, FedEx, etc. They must be shipped by a truck line. The units weigh about 200 pounds each, and are packed (unassembled) in the original shipping container provided by Astrocade, Inc. The units have never been opened. Electronically, they contain a lighted marquee and a power strip to plug anything you stick in the kiosk (as well as the lighted marquee) into. To set things up right, you'll need an Astrocade - which bolts onto the metal part of the case, a television to put inside the monitor area, and of course Bally games to stock it up with! They look pretty sweet when set up and filled with Bally boxes, as you can see in the pictures.

Price: Make me an offer!

Note: If you live near South Carolina and would like to pick up a kiosk yourself instead of shipping it (the carton will fit in a pick-up bed), we can work that out.

Note 2: Box dimensions forthcoming, as soon as I have time to measure one.

Payment terms and contact information

Payment is to be made in the form of checks (drawn on US banks only) or money orders (US funds, please!). I'll ship immediately on receipt of a cashier's check or money order. Personal checks are okay; however, I will wait for a personal check to clear before shipping the items.
